

BILL FAIN
Fain Signature Group/Owner, Member

A third-generation native Arizonan, Bill Fain has made a lifetime commitment to growing a bright and prosperous future for the Prescott Valley. The community of Daybreak at Bensch Ranch in Mayer, Arizona is an extension of that commitment.

During Prescott Valley's formative years, Bill Fain in conjunction with his partners brought more than 100 new business ventures and thousands of jobs to the community. As president of Fain Land and Cattle Company, Mr. Fain continues his family legacy of ranching and public service. Mr. Fain's focus is balanced economic growth in the Prescott Valley and the outreaching areas and personal dedication to public service.

Over the years, Mr. Fain has been an active participant in a wide variety of civic and cultural organizations including: The Sharlot Hall Prescott Historical Society, the Prescott Valley Economical Development Foundation, the Prescott Chamber of Commerce, the Regional Groundwater Steering Committee, the Yavapai College Foundation, the 71st Arizona Town Hall, the Yavapai, Arizona & American National Cattle Growers and many more.

In addition, the Fain family has made significant land and cash donations to the community including: the Yavapai Regional Medical Center, the Town of Prescott Valley, the Yavapai College Foundation, the West Yavapai Guidance Clinic and many others. In recognition of his philanthropy and his commitment to the Prescott Valley, Partners for Active Leaders (PAL) voted Bill Fain the PAL 2003 Man of the Year.

A graduate of the University of Arizona, Mr. Fain resides in Dewey, Arizona with his wife, Nancy.
